

Table of Contents

Scott AnderBois, Grant Armstrong & Edber Dzidz Yam Yucatec Maya preverbs and the semantic typology of adverbs	1
Ana Laura Arrieta Zamudio Conjectural questions in Ktunaxa	17
Anne Bertrand ʔisit as a comparative modifier in Ktunaxa	33
M. Ryan Bochnak Additive focus in alternative questions in Wá-šiw	47
Marianne Huijsmans Timing of evidence and epistemic modal claims in ʔayʔajuθəm (Comox-Sliammon)	63
Sander Nederveen Maximal and non-minimal change of state in Salish event structure	83
Bruce Oliver An analysis of circumstantial xwent in Secwepemctsin	99
Starr Sandoval Modification at a distance in Ktunaxa: evidence from witit	109
Luciana R. Storto Evidentials in Tupian languages	123
Maziar Toosarvandani Talking about the future in Zapotec	137
Luis Ulloa Establishing tenselessness in Shawi through text analysis	157
Kate Yangshuying Zhou The Ktunaxa Inferential is an Epistemic Modal	173